

City Boards and Councils

The City of Choctaw is served by a City Council, as well as several other specific community Boards, all made up of members of our community who volunteer their time and service to make Choctaw a great place to live.

Please visit the links for the individual boards listed in the menu to the right for more information about what each board does, as well as a listing of the current members and schedule of meetings.

If you are interested in volunteering for a position on a board, please visit our information page.
