Choctaw has some spooky fun for kids and adults alike during the Halloween season.  Hosted at Choctaw Creek Park, located on Harper between NE 10th St. and NE 23rd St., the Haunted Trails and Haunted Forest provide Tricks and Treats for all ages.

For little ones, the Trick or Treat Trail offers a sweet reward if you are brave enough to venture into the slightly spooky maze of rooms hosted by all sorts of costumed characters.
Entrance is $1 per child and adults are free to escort.  Treat bags will be provided.

Take a chance if you dare and enter the Haunted Trail. It is a dizzying, disorientating, array of different-themed scary rooms. It is sure to test your wits as you explore the menacing maze.
Entrance is $1 per person.

For those older and braver, the Choctaw Fire Department will give you thrills and chills, if you can brave the horrors of the Haunted Forest.  Filled with sights and sounds that will haunt you as you make your way through the dark forest, this event thrills hundreds of brave teens and adults every year.
Entrance is $5 per person and not recommended for young children.

Spooky not your thing?  The event also hosts vendors selling hot dogs, snacks, hot cocoa, s'more kits for the open fire pit, and tractor rides through the dark forest.

Come down to the Park for a howling good time, if you dare!
