

Living In Choctaw

The warm and friendly town of Choctaw, Oklahoma is attributed to generations of dedicated citizens who take pride in living here. We are a community with an emphasis on 'family first,' giving attention to the academic, social, emotional, and physical development needs of our children.

Residents benefit from a high quality healthcare system, one of the state's finest school districts, and excellence in police and fire department performance.

We enjoy the best in residential living with opportunities and support for individual prosperity in a proud, all-American town.

If you're looking for the best of both worlds – economic vitality and a rural high quality of life – Choctaw, Oklahoma is the place to be.

See the results for 2018 – Choctaw was ranked 3rd safest city in Oklahoma by Alarms.org.

