

New Residents

Welcome to the City of Choctaw, where the daily comforts of small town rural lifestyle meet the conveniences of a growing community with a bustling economy. With plenty of local recreational areas, businesses to suit all of your commerce needs, and a community that shares the “family first” lifestyle focus, it’s clear why Choctaw continues to grow and attract new families and businesses.

City Hall, located at 2500 N. Choctaw Road, should be one of your first stops when moving to Choctaw. Here you can fill out the utility contract to set up your water, sewer and trash service and pick up any permits you might need for alarms, fences, storm shelters, or any other changes requiring a permit. For more information on Utilities or Permits, click the highlighted links.

For information about the recreational opportunities in Choctaw, please follow these links for Parks and Festivals. If you have school age children, find out more about Choctaw-Nicoma Park Schools at their website here.

Would you like to become more involved in the Choctaw community? Consider applying for a position on one of our Councils or Boards, you can download an application and get more information here. We are also always looking for volunteers to help out with our seasonal festivals, fill out the volunteer form here.

Choctaw also offers several community programs through the Metropolitan Public Library, the Choctaw Senior Citizens Center, and Eastern Oklahoma County Vo-tech. Follow the links for more details and contact information.

Finally, the Choctaw Chamber of Commerce is another excellent resource for learning more about Choctaw. Call or stop by for community maps, guidebooks, and other information.